

House Resolution No. 4554

Whereas, from time to time the members of the Missouri House of Representatives are called upon to recognize the praiseworthy endeavors of outstanding Missouri citizens, a most delightful task which this legislative body embraces with great enthusiasm; and

Whereas, Ronald D. Bockenkamp of Farmington, Missouri, is to be commended for his service as an Investigator with the Missouri Attorney General's Office; and

Whereas, named Investigator of the Month in August 2004, Ronald Bockenkamp has distinguished himself by consistently striving to assist the citizens of Missouri on a daily basis; and

Whereas, prior to assuming his current responsibilities as an Investigator with the Attorney General's Office, Ronald Bockenkamp served as Director of Productivity Improvement with Koppers Industries, Incorporated; as Senior Vice President of Syn-Cronamics, Incorporated; as an Independent Counselor in Industrial Security; as Director of the Federal Law Enforcement Assistance Administration, Region VIII in Southeast Missouri; as an employee in the Detective Intelligence Unit of the St. Louis, Missouri, Police Department; and as a Criminal Investigator in the United States Air Force, where he was awarded the Air Force Commendation Medal; and

Whereas, Ronald Bockenkamp also had the honor and privilege of being elected to the Missouri House of Representatives, where he was a member of the Appropriations and Rules Committee and the House Resolutions Committee, of which he served as Chairman; and

Whereas, an avid Democrat, Ronald Bockenkamp has enjoyed recognition as a member of the Mineral Area Elks Club, the Backstoppers in St. Francois County, the Masons, and the American Legion; and

Whereas, Ronald Bockenkamp has been blessed with the love and affection he has continually received from his two canine companions, Lady and Nicki, both of whom have brought great joy and comfort into his life:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously in expressing deep gratitude to Ronald Bockenkamp for the superb service he has rendered to the Missouri Attorney General's Office and in wishing him continued happiness and fulfillment in all future endeavors; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Ronald D. Bockenkamp.
